

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

February 18, 1986

Dear Ellen:

Many thanks for sharing the copy of Will Clayton with me. I certainly look forward to enjoying your father's biography and shall retain it for inclusion in our future Presidential library.

The inscription you penned is truly appreciated. The preservation of peace and freedom remains at the very core of all that this Administration does; and we are working ceaselessly to help our friends in other nations maintain and, where conditions warrant and we can be of assistance, strengthen democratic processes. Your support of our efforts is indeed heartening as we carry on the legacy of peace and freedom of our beloved nation.

Again, thank you, and my best personal regards.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in dark ink, appearing to be "Ron", written in a cursive style.
